I accept responsibility for and agree to pay Manhattan School of Music the full cost of attendance, less any approved financial aid received by the School, according to the option selected above. If anticipated funds from third parties are not collected, I accept responsibility for any outstanding amounts. I will also pay all late fees and other charges necessary for the collection of any past due amounts.

I understand:

- (1) If I take an approved leave of absence or withdraw from the School, I am responsible for the payment of nonrefundable fees and the payment of other charges (including tuition and housing) according to the effective date determined by the Registrar.
- (2) If I default on my payment(s), I may be suspended from private lessons, classes, rehearsals, auditions, and participation in any other college activities and denied the use of the School's facilities. Furthermore, I jeopardize current and all future registrations and grade reports, transcripts, and diplomas.
- (3) All payment obligations must be fulfilled within the current academic year. If I default on my payment(s), the School may refer unpaid balances to a collection agency or litigate to collect payment. I will be responsible for reasonable collection costs, including, for example, attorneys' fees and other necessary charges.
- (4) The School or its agent(s) may disclose that I have defaulted, along with other relevant information, to credit agencies.
- (5) This agreement may be changed only in writing and as signed by an approved School official.
