

Interested in giving back to your community?
Participate in Manhattan School of Music's
OUTREACH PROGRAMS!

Outreach Teaching Program:

What we do:

- Provide group instrumental instruction for children ranging in age from 7-13.
Current classes include:
  - Violin, Guitar (acoustic and electric), Flute, Clarinet, Saxophone, Trumpet, Trombone, Recorder, Percussion, Drum Set, Piano, and Electronic Music.

What you experience:

- Pedagogical support
- An opportunity to hone your teaching skills
- $21.85 per teaching hour plus transportation
- A rewarding experience!

Outreach Performance Program:

What we do:

- Provide interactive musical performances for a variety of audiences, including:
  - Senior citizens in nursing homes, hospitals, & community centers
  - Adults with disabilities
  - Community school children, including instrument demonstrations
  - Various non-profit organizations in our community

What you experience:

- Mentoring and techniques to help you create interactive performances for diverse adult and youth communities
- Many smiles from extremely appreciative audience members
- An opportunity to perform in public
- $50.00 per performance plus transportation
- A rewarding experience!

If you're interested in any or all of the above, please attend our orientation meeting on

Tuesday, August 25, 2009 from 12-1pm in room 610

Heather Laurel
Outreach Program Coordinator
Main floor, room 011A
(across from the Precollege office)
hlaurel@msmny.edu
917-493-4475

Rebecca Charnow
Director, Young People's Division
Main floor, room 011
(across from the Precollege office)
rcharnow@msmny.edu
917-493-4404