

MANHATTAN SCHOOL OF MUSIC
RESIDENCE HALL FITNESS ROOM
STATEMENT OF LIABILITY RELEASE
Academic Year 2009-2010

1. The Manhattan School of Music and its officers, agents, employees, representatives, executors and all others assume no responsibility or liability for injuries or damages, including those caused by negligent act or omission, resulting from the use of the Manhattan School of Music Fitness Room, including any equipment or machinery or participation in any activities at said facility.

2. It is understood that strength, feasibility, and aerobic exercise, including the use of equipment, is a potentially hazardous activity. It is further understood that fitness activities involve a risk of injury and even death and that participation in these activities and use of equipment and machinery is voluntary and with the knowledge of the dangers involved. Resident students using the Fitness Room assume and accept any and all risks of injury or death.

3. Resident students using the Fitness Room are to be physically sound and suffering from no conditions, impairment, disease, infirmity, or other illness that would prevent their participation in any of the activities of the Manhattan School of Music Fitness Room or the use of equipment or machinery. Students intending to use the Fitness Room are advised to obtain a physician's approval for participation in an exercise/fitness activity or the use of exercise equipment and machinery. It is also recommended that students have a yearly or more frequent physical examination and consultation with their physician as to physical activity, exercise, and use of exercise and training equipment so that they might have recommendations concerning these fitness activities and equipment use. Students deciding to participate in fitness activity and/or use of equipment and machinery with or without the approval of their physician do hereby assume all responsibility for their participation and activities, and utilization of equipment and machinery in their activities.
