CAREER AWARENESS 2009

ARTS-IN-EDUCATION PANEL DISCUSSION***

This year's Career Awareness centerpiece event is a panel discussion including talented and dedicated teaching artists from New York's premiere Arts-in-Education organizations. The panel will explore the growing and dynamic Arts-in-Education field as a career option for conservatory graduates and performing musicians.

Find out what Arts-in-Education teaching is all about and how these young teaching artists turned their education and experience into a rewarding career in this in-demand profession.
