

Degree Completion Program, BFA Online Enrollment Pathway

Designed for experienced professionals without a bachelor's degree, this online program awards credit for prior learning, allowing students to complete their BFA efficiently. The admissions process is streamlined through Slate (our application system) and supported by the Canvas Hub, which offers webinars, training, and resources to guide applicants through prescreen and PLA Portfolio process.

Admissions Pathway

1. Submit Online Application

- Submit the Slate application that demonstrates the applicants 5+ years of performance history. This includes:
 - A written learning narrative describing professional performance experience
 - Performance history spanning 5+ years
 - Video/audio reels of performance
 - Playbills, programs, or other career artifacts

2. Application Prescreen

- The admissions team reviews eligibility. Approved applicants will proceed to the next step with access to Canvas Hub resources.

3. Portfolio Submission

- Build and submit a Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) portfolio with guidance from Canvas Hub tools, focusing on three additional sections:
 - Technical Skills
 - Literature, Repertoire, and History
 - General Education & Humanities

4. PLA Credit Award & Offer Letter

- Receive a credit evaluation and official offer letter, confirming advanced standing in the program based on prior experience.
